The Deadly Trichina.

CINCINNATI Jan 28.—At Aurora Ind seven persons are lying at the point of death from having eaten fresh pork with trichina in it two weeks ago. Mrs Henry Traynor had two hogs killed for family use. After eating Mrs Traynor and one child were attacked with what appeared to be typhoid fever. P. M. S. S. Co's Affairs Again.

NEW YORK Jan 28.—The Pacific Mail steamship Acapulco sailed for Aspinwall to day with a large passenger list. At a late hour yesterday a rumor was sprung on Wall street that a very unfavorable report of the Pacific Mail Company's business had been prepared by the Directors and prematurely made public by interested parties. At the office of the Company it was denied that any such report had been made there or had been authorized that the Board of Directors however, had pronounced in favor of the plan of altering some of the Company's old wooden steamers to sailing vessels as fast as they could be replaced by iron steamers.

Communism in New York City.

NEW YORK Jan 28.—Police Superintendent Matsell reiterates his belief that the fire in St. Bridget's Church was the work of Communists and he thinks other similar attempts probable. He thinks there can be no doubt that the Communists are thoroughly organized in this city and that threats against churches and school houses—especially against all Roman Catholic institutions—had been made since the Tompkins Square riot. He says that on the day of the riot many of the so-called workingmen who passed St. Joseph's Hospital looked up and shook their fists at the building uttering threats. One of the rioters who had his head cut by a policeman's club was tenderly cared for in that hospital yet he went away cursing the attendants. Matsell says an especial watch has been kept lately over churches and school houses and that the watch will be maintained. It is understood that particular pains have been taken to guard every church in south precinct.

Excitement Over the Appointment of Gen. McCook.

DENVER Jan 28.—Intense excitement prevails throughout the city and Territory since the receipt of the news of the removal of Governor Elbert and the Secretary and Surveyor General. There seems to be bitter opposition to the confirmation of McCook as Governor. A request to retain Elbert signed by all but two of the Republican members of the Legislature, was forwarded to day to President Grant.

Proposed Mass Meeting of Communists.

NEW YORK Jan 29.—Efforts are making to have a meeting for to-morrow night called by the Free Thinkers a great success. Circulars printed in German are freely distributed. And they say "You all remember the disgraceful occurrence on Tompkins Square which must convince all of us that our fundamendal rights are exposed to willful violence by executive authorities. Whatever your views of recent attempted workingmen's demonstration in Tompkins' Square may be, it is your duty, in the interest of that freedom of the country, to protest, earnestly against the violation of one of our first fundamental rights, for what once has been done against one class of citizens might soon be expected against another class. The mass meeting will furnish opportunity to raise the voice of public indignation."

Gladstone Defends the Government and Attacks Disraeli.

LONDON Jan 28.—The mass meeting at Blackheath to-day was not so large as expected on account of the drizzling rain and heavy fog. Gladstone however delivered his address to about 3,000 people. He admitted that Parliament had been dissolved because the Government felt their power ebbing. He sharply attacked Disraeli for seeking to divert the attention of the people from domestic to foreign politics. The financial measures proposed by the Government were eminently practical. The people wanted relief and reform in local taxation and the abolition of the income tax. Economy in administration was expatiated upon by the speaker at great length. The necessity for that economy which Conservatives never practised was unfavorable to a conservative reaction. In conclusion Gladstone proposed as a watchword for the party Liberal Union. If the Liberals were not united they would suffer a disgraceful defeat and if dissensions occurred he would refuse to continue to lead the party. He spoke for an hour and on concluding received a vote of confidence.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

FOREST GROVE—A HANDSOME TOWN—ITS GROWTH—EDUCATIONAL ADVANTAGES, ETC—MITCHELL'S RAVAGES IN THE POSTOFFICE.

FOREST GROVE Jan 28th 1874.

The snow that fell so fast and thick on the 15th instant and continued till Sunday last, has since rapidly disappeared. Frequent showers and heavy rains have prevailed. The result is, the snow that was twelve inches deep is entirely gone, except on the mountain ranges. The atmosphere is remarkably warm for this season of the year. Some of the old settlers say that the heavy showers of the last few days bear a marked resemblance to the warm rains that produced the flood of 1861-2.

FOREST GROVE

Is located in one of the most beautiful spots in Washington county, and is probably not surpassed in the State. The town is built on an elevation that admits of good drainage, a commanding view of the country and in the heart of a grove of fine oak timber. It is sheltered in the rear by a range of hills 1,500 feet high covered with heavy timber to the very top. The front presents an extended view of prairie valley and mountain scenery of rare beauty and variety. Tualatin Plains extend for seventeen miles east and west of the town, containing cultivated farms, rich soil and successful farmers. The progress of the town during the last two years is remarkable. In 1872 there were twelve new dwelling houses built, and last year there were twenty five erected. Four of them cost about $3 000 each and the whole of them would average $1 000 each making an expenditure for private residences in 1873 of $25 000 besides a number of office houses. This probably surpasses any town in the State, outside of Portland, for the number of new and good buildings erected last year. The cause of these improvements is easily explained by the fact that Forest Grove is one of the principal seats of learning in the State known as the

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY AND TUALATIN ACADEMY.

These institutions are long established have reached a high reputation and have rendered incalculable service to the educational character of the State. They are under the control of a body of trustees, a financial committee, and a faculty. The Rev Dr Marsh is the President of the University and Professor A J Anderson is the Principal of the Academy. There is an endowment fund of $65 000, raised by Dr Marsh in the Eastern States. About $500 were expended last year in fitting up a chapel and other improvements.

The buildings as a whole have served their day and should be either entirely rebuilt or so altered and improved as to be almost new, so as to be up to the times in comfort and style. It is discreditable to the intellectual taste of the people of Forest Grove and those who control the University to see the beautiful private residences that adorn the town and allow the University to remain somewhat resembling old, deserted barracks. Knowing the desire there is on the part of parents to give their children a good education and the wealth and liberality of the people in general there is but little doubt but the needful funds could be raised on this coast if the right men would take hold at the proper time.

The church connected with the University should have a preacher of the highest order—a man of deep thought superior intellectual powers and an eloquent preacher genial in his manners and social in his habits one in whom every one of the 150 students connected with the University and Academy would find a kind friend an able counselor and spiritual guide and whose house would be a home and a sanctuary for the student at all reasonable hours. Such a man would meet and would mould the heart of every student attending Forest Grove and send them home saved and redeemed—a blessing to themselves their families and the community. Under such a man the minds of the students and people would be illuminated their hearts enlarged and their purses opened to contribute liberally to make the University and the other institutions of Forest Grove the most beautiful and attractive place in Oregon for educational purposes and private residences. The Rev Mr Walker the present pastor of the Congregational Church where the students attend is a very good man and has served his generation well, but the time has come for his superannuation or having an assistant such as I have indicated. Churches and places of education should be made so attractive to the young that nothing but necessity would prevent their attendance. The Methodist Church has wisely and benevolently provided a fund for her superannuated minister.

Mrs Coburn teaches the district school when the funds admit of her doing so. At present she is conducting a successful private school in the district school building, but the school house like the University building is sadly in need of ample repair or being rebuilt.

Mrs S A Shearer runs the Forest Grove Hotel. She is remarkable for her attention and kindness to visitors, keeps a comfortable house, a good table and makes moderate charges.

The population of the Grove is ... and there are ... and ... of twenty. There are a number of good stores of which Mr A Hinman's is the newest and quite an ornament to the town. The usual number of mechanics and tradesmen have ample employment.

The postmaster who is a ... repairs ... gentleman ... moved ... The corrupt character of the ... the politicians from the managers of the primaries to the members of the United States Senate has brought disgrace on the country and made it a byword among the nation.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS

SENATE

WASHINGTON Jan 29.—In the Senate Sargent presented a long petition of Susan B Anthony relating the circumstances of her registering and voting in Rochester and her subsequent indictment and trial for illegal voting before Judge Hunt of the United States Supreme Court stating that her trial was not a fair one and her conviction in violation of the ... and asking that the fine be imposed on her be remitted. Referred.

Sherman introduced a resolution instructing the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds to inquire into the expediency of suspending the expenditures and appropriations for all public buildings commenced and to cover all unexpended appropriations into the Treasury. Agreed to.

A resolution from the Committee on Printing prohibiting the printing in the Congressional Record of any speech or part of speech not actually delivered in the Senate or House of Representatives was passed.

Morton submitted the following resolution which was laid on the table and ordered printed.

Resolved. That the Committee on Transportation Routes to the Seaboard be instructed to consider and report a bill creating a Commission of five eminent and skilled persons to be appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate who shall examine and report to Congress what legislation is necessary and practicable in regard to inter-State railroads to promote the following objects namely speedy transportation at reasonable rates of freight and passengers the safety and comfort of the passengers by providing for the inspection of bridges tracks locomotives and cars and reform of any abuses that may exist in consequence of extortion unjust discriminations in the transportation of freight and passengers and in general what regulations are necessary to promote the efficiency of railroads, the interests of commerce, and the convenience and safety of the traveling public.

The morning hour having expired the consideration of the resolution of the Finance Committee was resumed.

Boutwell addressed the Senate. He referred, in his opening remarks to Schurz's criticism of his opinions which during the past five years were embodied in the financial policy of the Government and he said that while the recent financial panic had taught a lesson it did not show that a policy which had been tried should be abandoned for one not tested. He claimed that the number of failures of legitimate business men during the late panic were few. The laboring classes alone have suffered and are alone entitled to consideration in the furnishing of relief, and in his belief an inflation of the currency would inflict a lasting injury upon the workingmen. He contended that the large accumulation of currency in New York, and the consequent speculation, were the causes of the panic and financial disasters there and he argued that inflation of the currency of the country would in time produce similar results. He was therefore, opposed to increase in the volume of currency, but he was also opposed to any contraction of it. He then took up the question of the reissue of the $44,000,000 and declared it the right of the Secretary of the Treasury to reissue. It ought never to have been questioned. He argued at length in support of his well known views on this subject. He denied the correctness of the statement that in the last four years no progress towards specie resumption had been made, and he cited the decreasing value of gold during that time, in proof of his view—a decrease which he attributed mainly to the increased business of the country. He said that the decrease in 1869 was largely attributable to the passage by Congress of the act to strengthen the public credit. He opposed the free banking system as unreasonable, and opposed Sumner's convertible bond proposition on the ground that it would result in contraction and the hoarding of money and that the bonds would also be bought up by combinations of speculators who would be able to use them to increase the currency and inflate prices to suit their schemes. The plan of resuming coin payments in a year from now he argued was impracticable that the Government had not gold enough and could not get it. He was also opposed to borrowing money with which to resume and finally he concluded that there is but one remedy and one means to ward off the evil, and that is taxation. He would not say what amount but taxation must be, else the disgrace of borrowing money to pay the expenses of the Government. As between the burden and this disgrace he would, put the burden on the people of the country before submitting to the disgrace.

Boutwell having in the course of his speech referred to the property of the South Gordon gave statistics showing a decrease in the value of farms and real estate and in the amount of farm products in Georgia between 1860 and 1870 of from 30 to 50 per cent.

Adjourned.

HOUSE

WASHINGTON Jan 29.—In the House, to-day a protest by the General Council of the Indian country organized under the treaties of 1866 against the establishment of a Territorial Government in that country, was presented.

Dawes from the Committee of Ways and Means reported back adversely the bills to repeal all taxation on bank checks and friction matches and stated that there was a strong desire in the community to remove these taxes. He, therefore instead of having the adverse reports laid on the table sub silentio, moved their reference to the Committee of the Whole for discussion and to make them the special order for Wednesday.

Monroe stated that he had introduced bills to repeal the stamp tax on matches and submitted the same reasons why the adverse report should be rejected and the bills passed.

Dawes' motion was agreed to.

Dawes also reported a bill to fix the amount of legal tender notes at four hundred millions. This bill was prepared by Beck and it declares that the provisions of the law existing prior to the act of April 12th 1866 are in force, so as to authorize the amount of legal tender notes of the United States to be four hundred millions in general circulation and that the total amount of United States notes issued or to be issued shall never exceed four hundred millions. He moved to make the bill the special order in Committee of the Whole for Thursday next. In reply to a question he said the bill was the unanimous report.

Maynard, Chairman of the Committee on Banking and Currency while disavowing any feeling of jealousy between the two committees suggested that the consideration of this bill might be arranged to go on in connection with such measures and policy as the Committee on Banking and Currency might present.

Dawes' motion was agreed to and the bill was made the special order in Committee of the Whole for Thursday next.

The House then resumed the consideration of the West Virginia contested election. After a long discussion and without ... the House at 4 ... took a recess till 7:30 for evening session to be for the consideration of the bill revising and consolidating the statutes.

The following is the text of the bill introduced to day by Dawes from the Committee on Ways and Means:

Whereas the existing uncertainty as to whether the amount of legal tender notes now authorized by law to be kept in general circulation is $356,000,000 or $400,000,000 is calculated to derange the business of the country and unsettle the values; Therefore be it enacted. That the provisions of law existing prior to the passage of the act approved April 12th 1866 entitled an act to amend an act to provide ways and means to support the Government approved March 11 1862 be and the same are hereby declared to be in force so as to authorize the amount of legal tender notes of the United States to be four hundred millions of dollars, to be kept in general circulation and the total amount of United States notes issued or to be issued shall never exceed four hundred millions.

OREGON

La Grande has a regular Woman's Prayer Meeting.

The Pop ... Cal building at McMinnville is undergoing extensive repairs.

The snow was ten inches deep on the hills back of McMinnville on last Monday.

Weston in Umatilla county presents every evidence of being a prosperous town.

A Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry has been organized at Sheridan Yamhill county.

A reliable gentleman from Wallowa reports that very little snow and cattle doing finely with out feed.

A storm of such magnitude as to delay the coaches four hours occurred in Umatilla county Wednesday of last week.

Umatilla county boasts that she has no rascal in her county jail. A greater reason to boast would be that she has none out of it.

Jerry Thompson was awarded the contract for building the Episcopal church (St. Peter's) in LaGrande. Contract price, $1,600.

The Central Grange of Linn Polk and Benton counties has rented a large hall in Albany for the purposes of monthly meetings.

The water in the Yamhill river according to the statement of a musical editor, who lives on its classic banks is "up to concert pitch."

Rev A Morrison has closed a contract for building a Universalist church at Cove Marion county with second story for Masonic and Odd Fellows hall.

The Sentinel says the times are rather dull at Union and money tight. The citizens amuse themselves by sitting around the stove of evenings and talking of the money they used to make.

Work on the Cinnabar mines, recently discovered in the Coast Range of mountains, has been suspended on account of the snow, which is seven feet thick and quite wide around there.

Some very mean thief stole the entire stock of provisions of a Salem pauper the other day. The county had furnished the articles which were stolen. Not many meaner thieves than that in this world.

The political kettle has already commenced boiling in Union county. mire and filth are being cast up and the locality during the campaign gives evidence of being exceedingly tropical. So says the Sentinel.

McMinnville Lodge No 35 I O G T January 24 1874 elected the following delegates to the State Temperance Alliance and Union, which meets at Salem on the 16th and 18th of February next. Emil Bories, I N Hibbs and James O Rogers.

The measles prevail to an unprecedented extent all through Umatilla county, and in some instances we hear of whole families being down with the disease. In Weston the keeper of the hotel has been compelled to close his place on account of measles and we are told that not a single family in the town has escaped the disease.

The Walla Walla Statesman is informed that the indebtedness of Umatilla county foots up $40 000. To meet current expenses and cover the interest on the indebtedness, it is found necessary to impose a tax of 26 mills on the dollar. Mr Crockett, the County Clerk states that for the year 1873 the debt was reduced between $6 000 and $7,000.

In driving up from Umatilla Landing to Pendleton, on Wednesday night of last week, the stage driver lost his way and for a number of hours was floundering about in the snow. With the dawn of day he gained his reckoning and reached Pendleton some six or eight hours after time. Driving stages over the plains at this season of the year is rather dangerous business.

There has been a call made for the United Baptist Churches within the counties of Union and Baker to convene at and with the Church at Forest Cove, in the county of Union, by their delegates upon the Saturday before the third Sunday in February 1874 for the purpose of designing some way and means for the more effectual preaching of the gospel, and advance of the course and interest of the United Baptist principles and doctrine.

Place of business Albany, Oregon. Capital stock $60,000, in shares of $200 each. The following named gentlemen are the incorporators: Luther Elkins Martin Luper, Calvin P Burkhart, Jason Wheeler Thomas Monteith James H. Foster D M Thompson. THE TERRITORIES.

There was ten inches of snow on the ground at Dayton W T, on the 21st inst.

The brig Perpetua has arrived at Port Discovery and is loading lumber for San Pedro.

The barkentine Harrison is loaded at Port Discovery and as soon as the number of her crew is made complete will sail for San Francisco.

We are informed that the schooner Orca, heavily laden with potatoes has gone ashore on one of the numerous islands in the neighborhood of San Juan.

The Statesman says: "The snow storm that visited Walla Walla valley last week is likely to prove destructive to stock. Bad weather in the early part of the winter greatly reduced the animals and left them in poor condition to stand another siege of bad weather."

A correspondent at Dayton W T says: "There were a number of bids received on Saturday last for furnishing lumber for the Warehouse on Snake river. Mr Eckler being the lowest bidder—$10 per M at the mill yard—received the contract. Work will be commenced as soon as the weather permits."

A letter dated Jan 12th from Neah Bay to the Port Townsend Argus says: "Is there any vessel missing from the Sound outward bound? There has been some disaster at sea in the vicinity of Cape Flattery. The Indians are picking up timber and report plenty adrift. To day our Indians went out and picked up what I call a royal yard painted white. They report a cabin door ashore above this place. I will go to morrow to try and find it—it may give some clue to the vessel wrecked."

The Port Townsend Argus of last Saturday has the following: The pilot boat Lottie arrived from Cape Flattery on Friday. From Captain Oliver we have received the following: On the 20th January at Hoko near the Cape, spoke the bark Ca... Mitchel lying at anchor. The Mitchel had been forced to put back during the storm of the 15th in which she lost her deck load and split her sails. Also same date spoke barkentine W H Gawley which had put back with split sails. Both vessels were ready for sea and needed no assistance.

The bark Oak Hill Capt W J Grove arrived at Port Townsend on the 22d of January 13 days from San Francisco. Passengers: Mrs Tucklin Miss Maggie Tucklin. Capt Grove reports that during the first half of the passage he experienced the coldest and most severe weather he had seen on this coast for 20 years. The Oak Hill lay off the Cape nearly a week, and during that time the Captain had frequently to square his yards to break off the ice and keep his sails in working order. The Oak Hill is to load at Blakely for San Francisco.

A correspondent of the Walla Walla Statesman writing from Swauk W T mines under date of Dec 28th says: "There are some dollar or more claims being worked and others are being opened up prior to commencing operations in the spring. Those who are here are highly flattered with the prospects and feel confident that in the spring they will take out a large quantity of dust. I would advise all young men, not otherwise engaged to come here and prospect and my word for it they will be well paid for their trouble. So far this winter we have been cut off from the outside world, that is, so far as mail communication is concerned. Not a letter or paper has been received in camp since the opening of winter. The weather is fine with only a few inches of snow on the ground. In digging a ditch to our claim the dirt prospected ten cents to the bucket."

A Convocation of the Missionary jurisdiction of Oregon and Washington closed its sessions in Seattle last week. The clergy present were Bishop Morris, and the Rev Mr Burton from Portland, the Rev J W Sellwood of Oregon City Rev Mr Babcock of Salem the Rev P E Hyland, of Port Townsend and the Rev Mr Bonnell, of Tacoma. The services of the Convocation were begun at Olympia on the 11th and were continued at Tacoma Seattle, Port Ludlow and Port Townsend, closing with the service in Trinity Church, in Seattle on Monday evening. The Bishop announced that arrangements had been made with the clergymen on the Sound and in Oregon by which services would be kept in the church at Seattle and Olympia every fortnight until a permanent Rector could be obtained for each place, which he trusted would be within six months.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

The mercury stood 5° below zero at Victoria on the 23d inst.

Mr Thomas Harris will be a candidate for the Commons for Victoria City District. Address in a few days.

Mr Wm H Bevis, meteorologist, reports that on the 18th inst the hardest gale ever experienced during thirteen years residence was felt at Esquimalt Vancouver Island.

A telegram from Lytton yesterday states that the road will not be open for several weeks. The snow is twenty feet deep in many places, and avalanches have done much damage.

An old and respected resident of Victoria nearly lost his life on Monday from eating mussles, which proved to be poisonous. He was only saved by the timely arrival of a physician.

Through Wells, Fargo & Co the following amounts were shipped from Victoria to San Francisco on the 27th: Bank B N. America $9 994, Bank of British Columbia, $7,174. Total, $17,168.

An Ottawa dispatch of the 21st says: Everything connected with the surveys east of the Rocky Mountains and nearly all the plans, etc relating to British Columbia in 1872—including Seymour Narrows and Bute Inlet—were destroyed by fire.

On Wednesday evening of last week the following officers of Vancouver Lodge No 2, F & A M, Victoria, were installed by Bro P M Simeon Duck: A Astrico, W M; P Gasterhout, S. W; Thomas Inge, J W; J F. Becker, Treasurer; J G Vinter Secretary; W Bowden, S D; Thomas Ennor, J D; Chas Taylor and Lewis Lewis, Stewards; J Gosnell, I G; Thomas Martin Tyler.

The following is from New Westminster, January 23d: Thomas Carwell, a native of Leeds England, and for some time employed at Moody's mills, died at the hospital on Tuesday. The cold was very severe, and accounts were coming in from the surrounding country of a general freeze up. Barnard's express had only reached Cheam in six days from New Westminster, traveling being next to impossible.

A private telegram from Yale yesterday, reports the river blocked with ice cold intense, snow still falling and no arrivals from above or below for several days. Dr Powell and party only reached Cheam, 60 miles from New Westminster after six days canoeing, and it is feared that the last snap will have stopped progress entirely. A telegram to the Herald, on Jan 21st, says the road to Alexandria bridge is blocked with snow from four to eighteen feet deep. Thermometer, 5 degrees below zero.

A correspondent at Kootenai, writing under a late date, says: "The weather is fine, and work is proceeding as usual with the exception of hydraulic claims, which were stopped in consequence of the cold snap in October. On Perry creek the Montgomery Company are making good wages drifting. The first snow fell on the 26th of November. Considerable snow has fallen on Spokane prairie, there was about six inches at Colville. The party from California, who tested the quartz lead on the Kootenai Lakes, pronounce the ledge a fizzle, and suspect that the claim was salted. Kettle river is frozen, and is now crossed by pack trains. The camp is orderly, and everything very quiet."

A terrible tragedy occurred in James Bay Ward Victoria District, on the 22d inst. About 6½ o clock in the evening as Mr Henry Forman was seated at supper with his wife and married daughter Mrs Schooley, in the kitchen of his residence, on Quebec street, he was shot in two places by his son-in-law, Thomas Schooley, and fatally wounded. The affair created great excitement, and the whole populace turned out to capture the murderer. After he was caught he seemed to feel very penitent and attributed the whole matter to whisky. The Colonist says: Mr Forman made his dying deposition. He said that Schooley had been drinking freely for some days and had abused his wife and Mrs Forman. On Wednesday night he threatened to horsewhip Mrs Schooley and acted in a frenzied manner. Last evening when Mr Forman came home he found Schooley still in his cups, abusive and threatening, and for peacesake he decided to take his meal in the kitchen. It was while in the act of conveying a piece of meat on a fork held in his left hand to his mouth that Schooley opened the door leading into the dining room and fired with a revolver. The first ball passed through Forman's left hand. He jumped up and made for the back door. Schooley fired again. The second shot passed entirely through Forman's body as above stated. The ladies were also fired at twice, but escaped and ran to Mr Anderson's house where all were received and cared for. Mr Elliott swore in several special constables and the police surrounded the house, armed with revolvers and rifles. The assassin was heard moving about frequently but it was not deemed advisable to force an entrance until about 11 o'clock when Mr W H Kay raised one of the kitchen windows and entered that apartment. He then opened the door and admitted Inspector Bowden and policeman Clark. The three groped their way in the dark through the house to Schooley's bedroom the door of which Mr Kay found closed and Schooley lying against it. He pushed open the door and seized the wretch, just as he had cocked a pistol to fire, and pinioned him. After this gallant exploit the police entered the room and handcuffed Schooley, who seemed to be much under the influence of drink and carried him (he refused to walk) to the barracks where he now is. At Schooley's side were a demijohn of port wine a six shooter a derringer and a bowie-knife and as Mr Kay entered the room he stepped upon the revolver and it went off, doing no damage however.

REFORM IN THE CUSTOMS SERVICE

Senator Fenton has introduced and the Senate Committee on Commerce now has under discussion a bill looking to a complete revision of the present Schedule of fines, forfeitures and penalties and a thorough overhauling of the Customs service in general The measure is receiving favorable consideration and some of its economical features are warmly commended by Secretary Richardson In a letter written by invitation of the Senate Committee the Secretary gives the outline of a plan for sweeping changes in existing regulations He recommends the abolition of the present system of moieties with the exception that where attempts at smuggling are determined or acts of smuggling are accomplished and the goods afterward seized the seizing officer or officers and informer or informers, if any, shall be entitled to equal parts of one tenth of the proceeds or, if there be no informer, the seizing officer to be entitled to the whole of such one-tenth This restriction, if enacted, would make a very considerable reduction in the present incomes of Custom House officers, which would speedily be brought to a reasonable figure if Mr Richardson's seventh recommendation could also be enforced—"that compensation of Customs officers shall be graded in accordance with the importance and responsibility of the position" We can see no possible valid objection to this amendment. It is a common business maxim, and means simply that the Government shall pay its servants just what they are worth—no more and no less One beneficial result its enforcement would certainly accomplish if the compensation of every Customs officer should be graded in accordance with the importance and responsibility of his position, a large army of salaried officials would be driven from the public crib, and the corrupt political practices which are now too common in some communities, would be less frequent if not altogether impossible. The number of indolent loafers now supported at the expense of the taxpaying classes would be largely diminished, the systematic brokerage which to-day enables the superior officer to contract with his inferior to sign the requisite vouchers of service and do no other duty for a certain per cent of the legal salary—the remaining and larger fraction going into private purses, or a general fund of corruption—would be abolished to a gratifying extent, and the people would have the rare satisfaction of knowing that in times of high taxation their contributions to the national revenue could not be parceled out among a set of irresponsible vagabonds, useful only on election day The present system retains in office a host of sinecurists whose sole duty is to vote, fight or swear according to instructions It is full of strong inducements to crime It fosters perjury, theft, and a host of minor sins, and is a most convenient and formidable instrument in the hands of men whose sole mission on earth seems to be to make honesty the vassal of vice This is the worst phase of the system now in vogue, but it is by no means overdrawn The change recommended by the Secretary of the Treasury would bring about a much needed reform in this direction

In another part of the letter we find a suggestion that the law be so amended "that no compromise of any fine, penalty or forfeiture, occurring from violating the navigation or Customs revenue laws shall be lawful until after judicial investigation of the facts" Instances are not uncommon, even in recent history, wherein large importing firms have engaged in a gigantic scheme to swindle the Government out of proper duties, and, being detected, have closed the mouth of the Customs Cerberus with a plump share of the profits It seems to be the presumption of the present law that the payment of large moieties insures vigilance and honesty on the part of the detective officials Experience has shown that the presumption is a very violent one Perhaps we had best go back to first principles—pay our employes an honest salary and provide stringent penalties for official rascality on the theory that the fear of punishment is quite as potent as the hope of reward.

OUR MAIL FACILITIES

A correspondent at Salem wants to know why it is that the mails from San Francisco are sometimes in transit for seven days, and, further, what has become of Postal Agent Underwood A city "Inquirer" asks how it happens that the Eastern paper mail reaches Portland but three times a month And a correspondent writing from Palouse says he has not seen an OREGONIAN for six weeks, and that "it is a common occurrence to see the mail carried by in common seamless bags without locks, and for aught we know without being tied up half the time

All of these querists have our earnest sympathies Their grievance is the common grievance of every citizen who has the misfortune to be a patron of the United States mails in this section of the year As to the Eastern paper mail, we are painfully aware of the fact that it reaches Portland but once in eleven days By the last steamer we received New York files dated from December 29th to January 9th, some of our exchanges being nearly three weeks old To day our latest Eastern date is January 9th—twenty one days old

We do not know how this is to be remedied unless our Postal Agent shall consent to look after his business occasionally He is noted for the diligence and conscientious fidelity with which he nurses the dubious political fortunes of J B Underwood We cherish the hope that he will yet squander some of his surplus energy in wrestling with the conundrum put by our correspondents Rumor has it that he is now in Washington awaiting the descent of the political guillotine

The complaint of our Palouse correspondent hints at a very serious irregularity in mail transportation over Washington Territory routes It should be remedied at once In that new and sparsely settled country occasional mishaps are to be expected But there is no excuse for a violation of the law prescribing a uniform mail sack for the carriage of letter mails We are disposed to make all reasonable allowances for the uncertainties of stage travel in the southern part of Oregon, but we know of no adequate reason for the repeated and vexatious delays which prompt the complaints of our correspondents We hope our delegation in Congress will call the attention of the Postoffice Department to this subject

STOLEN IN WASHINGTON

The recent inquiries of the Senate Judiciary Committee have directed the attention of the best and most influential journals in the land to the abuses which have been partially unveiled There is a loud call for a thorough purging of the departments which have thus been brought under suspicion The prevalent belief seems to be that the investigation begun in the Department of Justice should be carried into every bureau Meanwhile additional particulars relating to the expenditures from the various contingent funds are appearing Commenting on the number and extent of these evils, the Cincinnati Gazette says

Then Congress should put the knife into and rip up all abuses that come under the head of perquisites Neither heads of departments nor other officials have any right to shine in society at the public expense If they desire to send their wives around in expensive carriages driven by liveried servants they should be made to pay for the glory such as it is out of their own pockets The custom of drawing upon the Treasury in the name of contingent expenses for horses and carriages and putting servants upon the pay roll of some department was established in Washington many years ago but it is a bad custom and like all evils, it has grown until now it has become a public scandal, and Congress is called upon to uproot it

There should be no standard of morals in Washington different from that which prevails in other parts of the country In well regulated society a woman whose husband has an income of six or eight thousand a year who should, in order to shine in society, live at the rate of twice that sum would be pointed at as the wife of a dishonest man This should also be the rule in Washington There is no honest road to wealth in Washington that is not known in other places and it is very well known that a person whose resources are his salary can not without stealing maintain the style of a wealthy man A prudent merchant would discharge a clerk known to live outside of his income This is a principle that should be applied in Washington, and the sooner it is applied the better.

WORTH AN INQUIRY, PERHAPS

In a speech on a recent report of the Senate Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads Senator Morrill, of Maine sharply criticised the policy of Mr Creswell and its results He charged that at the beginning of Creswell's term the Postal Department cost the Government but $15 000,000 per annum, and that the cost last year reached $33,000 000, an increase of $18 000,000 The Senator said further that he had ascertained on careful examination, it pays 300 per cent more for the carriage of mails than is paid, over the same routes, for transportation of freights "That is" says the Sacramento Union "if a ton of freight for a private firm is carried 1 500 miles for $20 the same railway company charges the United States $80 for carrying a ton of newspapers or letters, neatly and compactly done up in mail bags and cared for and handled by special agents of the Postoffice Department without demanding the least attention from the transportation company And the Postmaster General allows it and makes no mention in his annual report of the flagrant extortions of those who do the work for the Government It was one of the strongest arguments used by the railway plunderers when they solicited aid from the United States to build their roads that the Government would save millions in the decreased cost of carrying the mails But Creswell has turned his promised apple into Dead Sea fruit The more railway transportation the department avails itself of, the more it increases the cost of transportation"

There must be some satisfactory explanation of this remarkable increase of expenditures Postmaster-General Creswell has distinguished himself by a conscientious administration of the affairs of his Department, and we would prefer to believe that Senator Morrill has made a blunder in adding his columns It is a well known fact that Mr Creswell has always advocated a cheap postal system Indeed, this is his hobby

In the Senate Jan. 7th Senator Bayard paid this high compliment to Senator Casserly in announcing the resignation of the latter gentleman "The seat on my left was the seat of a Senator from California (Mr Casserly) than whom no more devoted public servant was in public life whose absence subtracts from this Chamber and from the councils of this nation as much of pure high character culture and ability as would the absence of any other man now upon the floor of either House of Congress Compelled by ill-health caused by over devotion in the public service he resigned his place as Senator on the first day of the present session

PROTESTANTISM VERSUS CATHOLICISM

Some correspondence has taken place between Sir George Bowyer and Earl Russell originating from an announcement that the noble Earl was to preside at a meeting called to express approbation of the measures and proceedings of the Prussian and German Governments against the Roman Catholic Church Sir George writes

Such a meeting must produce the bitterest feelings on the part of both Catholics and Protestants in this country and still more in Ireland Things will be said which every lover of peace, charity and liberty will lament and deplore and the effects of which will be injurious to your own Catholic fellow country men We have nothing to do with the persecutions now carried on in Germany by means of measures of legislation which for this country would be rejected and reprobated by every public man of every party and be received in the House of Commons with contempt and derision We ought to keep aloof from everything that bears even the semblance of persecution We ought to be proud that we alone truly understand religious liberty and see how unwise it is for a Government to engage in a contest with a religious body which in substance is a fight against religious opinions of a portion of its subjects Prince Bismarck does not want your sympathy and he will be amused by finding at the approval of English [illegible]

To this Lord Russell replied as follows

PEMBROKE LODGE RICHMOND PARK December [illegible]

Dear Sir George Bowyer—I am very sorry to differ from you in the step which I have taken of consenting to preside at a meeting, at which it will be proposed to express our sympathy with the Emperor of Germany in the letter which he has made in his letter to the [illegible]

I hope that the time has come when, as seen by Sir Robert Peel when the Roman Catholic Church has claimed equality and will be satisfied with nothing but ascendency

To this ascendency openly asserted to extend to all baptized persons and therefore including our Queen the Prince of Wales our Bishops and clergy I refuse to submit The autonomy of Ireland is asserted at Rome I decline the Pope's temporal rule over Ireland I remain yours very truly RUSSELL

The correspondence was continued by Sir George Bowyer who assured Lord Russell that no one whether Catholic or Protestant is more opposed than he Sir George to these endeavours He adds

My belief is that the peace and happiness of a nation depend in a great degree on every man respecting the religious convictions of his neighbor, and the State not attempting to control conscientious opinion nor interfering with the liberty of churches and denominations As for the claim on all baptized persons contained in the Pope's letter to the German Emperor it is not temporal nor political but spiritual His Holiness necessarily claims as head of the Catholic Church to be the spiritual Pastor and Bishop of all baptized persons and I do not see why time should cause any uneasiness to her Majesty the Queen or His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales Every Bishop of the Established Church makes the same claim within his diocese and every clergyman within his parish At any rate the claim must be in the legal and matter of religious opinion which no public meeting and no Parliamentary action can [illegible] Of course Protestants refuse to submit to the spiritual authority of the Pope and this also is matter of opinion and any declaration of adherence to it is simply superfluous The essential question before us is whether Englishmen and especially English liberals are justified in sanctioning the penal laws and very measures of the Prussian and German Governments against the Roman Catholic Church in that country and at the same time commencing an Anglo German No-Popery movement here which must kindle the flames of religious discord and sectarian hatred among our countrymen especially in Ireland

Sir George proceeds to call the noble Earl's attention to a most thoughtful and able article in the Standard of the 21 inst on this subject and therein argues that the meeting and its Chairman cannot express their sympathy with the Emperor and condemn his measures as tyrannical and unjust He remarks

The Catholic schools—even those in convents—are shut up the religious communities are dispersed and there are hundreds of Catholic parishes deprived of their clergy Can any one professing religious liberty approve this state of affairs? But what I most deprecate is the importation into this Kingdom of the bitter spirit which now rages in Germany What have we to do with that German persecution? We have now lived in peace for many years Why should the embers of theological hatred and religious animosity be again stirred up?

"Having had the honor to represent an Irish constituency for sixteen years I feel it my duty to remonstrate against that meeting which will be received by Ireland as an insult and an injury and increase the unfriendly feeling which unhappily exists there toward England And as an Englishman I raise my protest against a movement which must excite the public mind disturb the peace of the country and inflict both pain and injury on her Majesty's loyal Roman Catholic subjects

Some further notice passed about the publication of this correspondence In one Lord Russell tells Sir George— You seem to forget the part the Whigs took in remedying your legitimate grievances

SUPPLIES DURING THE MODOC WAR.—WASHINGTON Jan 27—Luttrell succeeded to day in recovering at one of the public offices vouchers to the amount of more than $70 000 belonging to citizens of Northern California and Oregon who had furnished supplies to the army during the Modoc war These vouchers ought to have been received here six months ago Checks will now be transmitted to the parties interested through the Quartermaster, Batchelder payable by the United States Treasurer at San Francisco Other vouchers are still missing, but Luttrell is in search of them

The Court of Queen's Bench in Montreal against which the lawyers have recently rebelled is indeed in a very bad way The Chief Justice has resigned on account of bodily infirmities the next in rank is as deaf as a haddock while the third is strongly suspected of corruption The Court House has been regularly opened with the seats empty and the sitting adjourned to the next morning every day since the lawyers refused to do any business in it

FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 30, 1874.

From an Old Newspaper.—In the Portland Library is a copy of the Oregon Free Press of October 14th, 1848. We quote from it the following:

"The brig Henry had not gone to sea on yesterday week. The cause of her detention we do not learn. She has one hundred and twelve passengers."

What a change has taken place since then! Now we travel by steamer, and the accommodations are of quite a different character. In another portion of the paper we find an advertisement, which for its peculiar construction and the manner of forming the letter "w" (evidently a letter that is short in the "sorts,") renders it a curiosity. Here it is:

CONTINUED.

THE MAIN STREET HOUSE.

THE LARGEST AND MOST COMMODIOUS PUBLIC HOUSE IN OREGON.

Is still kept by the undersigned, where the public are entertained free of CHARGE, as the proprietor alvvays takes pay in hand. THANKS for past favors—suit yourself as to the future; but if you choose to call, you may rest assured I vvill do all I can to render your stay agreeable. Moss.

N. B. I vvill rent the above described property for three years, if I can find a suitable tenant. Moss.

Oregon City, April 7.

Interest Reduced.—We learn that after several months' negotiation, which has been pending between the German bondholders of the Oregon and California Railroad and the Company, a reduction in the rate of interest has been agreed upon. Mr. Holladay, as representing the Company, is to remain in the present possession and control of the railroad. The rate of interest on the bonds has been reduced from 7 per cent. per annum—payable semi-annually—to 2½ per cent. The interest on these bonds became due on the 1st of April and 1st of October of each year. The last payment of interest was made by the Company last spring. After the 1st of October, no payment of interest having been made, the bonds were protested. Mr. Wm. S. Norris, of San Francisco, one of the Trustees of the Mortgage Bond, sailed for Europe some time during October to effect, if possible, a compromise between the bondholders and the Railroad Company. After several months' negotiation, the above arrangements were made. A telegram received a few days since from Frankfort-on-the-Main, conveyed the intelligence of the compromise.

Missing.—The Sacramento Union, of the 24th inst., says: "It is reported to us that Henry Kohn, formerly engaged in the clothing business in this city, but latterly residing in San Francisco, has suddenly disappeared. He was in Sacramento recently, left for the Bay about twelve days ago, and parted from a friend who went down with him on the boat, on Montgomery street, since when he has not been heard of. His brother, who is a resident of Portland, Oregon, was in the city three or four days ago, making inquiries concerning the whereabouts of the missing man. He is said to have lost a large sum lately in stock speculations." The missing man was in Portland last summer and remained some time. He was very well known here.

New Code.—The revision and codification of the laws of the State has been completed, and the manuscript is now in the hands of the State Printer. The Governor and Secretary of State have been examining the revised laws for some time as required by law. Last week Judge Deady went up to Salem, taking with him the latest installment of the "copy." Everything is in readiness, and the printers will soon commence work. The new Code will probably be finished and ratified by the next Legislature. It has not yet been determined whether the Code will be printed in one or two volumes. Before this can be determined upon the copy will have to be measured.

Fine Blankets.—That just as fine grade of blankets may be manufactured in Oregon as in any portion of the United States can be clearly demonstrated by calling at the store of Jacobs Bros. on Front street. Several pair of elegant blankets have just been turned out by the Oregon City Woolen Mills, which for fineness of grade and texture, will not compare unfavorably with fabrics of that character turned out by any other mills in the United States. No other mill in Oregon has ever manufactured such fine blankets. Only a few blankets of that grade have been made at the Oregon City Woolen Mills, as the trade will not warrant.

For the Stickeen.—The steamer Eliza Anderson has been chartered by Capt. Dan Morrison and Charles Clancey—both well-known steamboat men on the Sound—to make regular semi-monthly trips from Victoria to Fort Wrangle. The Anderson has been completely overhauled in all her parts, and is said to be admirably adapted for the trade. She can comfortably accommodate 100 passengers in first and second cabins, and has fine capacity for live stock and freight. Price of passage will not exceed $25 or $30 from Victoria. She will start on her first trip about the 10th prox. Timely notice will be given.

The Weather.—At 6:30 o'clock last evening the weather east of the mountains was as follows:

Wallula—Cloudy; thermometer, 48°; river at a stand to-day.

Cascades—Cloudy and raining a little; thermometer, 45°.

Walla Walla—Cloudy; thermometer, 40°.

Umatilla—Cloudy; thermometer, 46°.

Dalles—Weather cloudy; thermometer, 40°.

Soon to Depart.—Put Smith, having concluded to engage in the stockraising business, will leave for the Eastern States on the Ajax for the purpose of purchasing a flock of fine sheep for his ranch in Walla Walla valley. He will visit Illinois, Iowa, New York, Vermont and Canada, and expects to obtain the best stock that he can possibly find. When his herd is all collected, he will ship them by rail to Ogden, and from thence drive them to their destination.

Weather Report.—From the records of the U. S. Signal Station of Observation, Portland, Oregon, January 29, 1874:

	7 A. M.	2 P. M.	9 P. M.
Thermometer	43°	51°	47°
Wind, direction	S.	S.	Calm.
" velocity miles pr hour	12	10
Weather	Cloudy.	Cloudy.	Lt. Rain.
Rainfall	.14	.03	.02
Total rainfall during the day			0.19 inches

Caved.—The heavy rain of the past few days has caused portions of the B street improvement to cave away. A portion of the embankment beyond Eighteenth street has been loosened by the rain and slid down. The actual damages to the improvement is not very extensive, and can easily be repaired next summer. Travel has not been suspended along the B street extension.

Resigned.—We learn that in consequence of ill health, Mrs. F. P. Church has been compelled to resign her position as teacher of the Primary Department of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary. Mrs. L. A. Lillie, an experienced and popular teacher has been employed to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Lillie has entered upon her duties.

Convalescing.—Mr. John Kenworthy, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum, East Portland, has been quite seriously ill for the past four weeks; but we are glad to announce to his numerous friends that he is now slowly improving, and we hope soon to hear of his resuming the important duties of his office.

Still in Town.—Sheriff Tozier, of Washington county, will remain in the city to-day, and all persons in the city or county, who own property in that county, are requested to meet him at the Occidental Hotel, where he will be happy to give all taxpayers his certified autograph—for a consideration.

Pay Duties.—The Victoria Colonist of a late date says: "Miners from Portland, or other foreign ports, must pay duties on their supplies for Cassiar at Buck's Bar on Stickeen river. Free navigation don't mean free port."

In Ballast.—The schooner Oregonian is now in the river, and will probably arrive here to-day. This vessel comes in ballast from San Francisco. Her return cargo will consist of whatever she may find to carry away.

Presented.—Prof. Williamson, who has charge of the Central School of this city, was made the recipient of a neat and substantial present on Wednesday evening, by a number of his pupils. The testimonial consisted of a silver napkin ring, elegantly chased. Mr. Williamson was taken completely by surprise and could scarcely find words with which to express his feelings. The presentation was made at Mr. Williamson's own house,—the pupils having unceremoniously invaded his parlor at an early hour in the evening.

Arrived.—The schooner Hera arrived at this port from San Francisco with a full assorted cargo. She is lying at the Steamship Company's wharf discharging cargo.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Be sure to be in time about securing your seats for Masonic Hall to-night.

The City Rifles will give a grand ball in March. Ere that time they will give a private invitation party at their armory.

This evening the Scandinavian Society will hold a select social party at Good Templars' hall. This will be the second party given under the auspices of the Society, and will no doubt be as pleasant as the first one.

The programme of the second grand masquerade, to be given by the Turn Verein, appears in this issue. The Committee are showing extreme liberality in offering prizes, which will be an additional inducement to those proposing to participate to get up their costumes in an original as well as attractive style. Tickets can be had at several places, and arrangements have been effected to enable spectators to enjoy the scene while comfortably seated. We may add that Bosco's "Marvel of Mecca" will be exposed, which will certainly prove an immense attraction. Brass and string music will, of course, be provided, and everything that will conduce to the pleasure of all attending will be fully considered by the management. The affair promises to exceed a similar entertainment given by the Society last year.

Nothwithstanding the disagreeable weather, Nonpareil Hall was crowded last evening by ladies and gentlemen on the occasion of the social entertainment given there. The programme for the evening consisted of vocal music, readings, essays, etc. Mr. E. W. Ryan favored the audience with two essays, Miss Minnie Welsh with a recitation, and also the reading of the "Maniac," in which she acquitted herself very creditably. Father Harmon sang a solo, as also did Mr. Winsapp and Miss Dudley. A quartette furnished music at intervals during the exercises, which greatly diversified the entertainment, and lent additional attraction to the affair. All present appeared to enjoy themselves finely, and the programme gave entire satisfaction. At the conclusion of the musical and literary exercises, the room was cleared, and supper was announced, to which all present were prepared to do ample justice. Later in the evening the seats were cleared, and several hours passed in a social dance.

This evening the Centennial Toast and Tea Party will come off at Masonic Hall. Extensive preparations are being made to afford the public a rare treat. A very attractive programme has been prepared which is decidedly unique in its character, combining a large element of the serio-ludicrous. We feel warranted in saying that from the character of the programme, the entertainment will be worthy of patronage. The following is the programme for this evening: Piano solo—"Wandering Sprite." Chorus—"Three Pence a Pound on Tea," by "Ye Ancient People." Reading—"A Hundred Years Ago." Original Poem. Solo—"Revolutionary Volunteer," by "Ye Elderly Gentleman. "An Open Letter to the Boston Commonwealth," written by Mrs. Victor. Recitation—"Beautiful Snow." Reading—"Out of the Old House into the New." "Old Ballad," by "Yo Ancient Belle." "New Ballad," by the "Modern Belle." Reading—"The Bridge of Sighs." Reading—"Arnold Winkelried." Solo—"King Arthur's Pudding." Colloquy—by "Young America," "Brother Jonathan" and "Aunt Columbia." Chorus: "America" by Aunt-Tribulation-Fear-the-Lord, Perkins, Thankful, Bascom, Penelope, Prim, Hezekiah, Bedott, Mehitable, Spriggins, Cotton Mather and many other people. The entire audience is requested to join in singing this hymn, after which an elegant supper will be offered to all who may wish to partake. Entire new programme for Saturday evening.

G. W. Jester, the man with the talking hand, will give two entertainments to-morrow at Oro Fino Theater. These will be the last given by this artist in this city, and none should fail to see and hear him on the occasion referred to.

PERSONAL.

Dr. O. P. S. Plummer, Superintendent of this Division of the Western Union Telegraph Co., returned a few days since from Victoria and the Sound country, whither he went several weeks ago to inspect the lines in those regions. He is now at Albany.

Mending China Ware.—Mix together equal parts of fine glue, white of eggs, and white lead, and with it anoint the edges of the articles to be mended, press them together, and when hard and dry scrape off as much of the cement as sticks about the joint. The juice of garlic is another good cement, and leaves no mark where it has been used.

Holidays over—B. L. Stone is offering a full assortment of jewelry at a reduction.

REMOVAL—CLOSING OUT.

EMIL LOWENSTEIN & CO. have removed their remaining stock of Carpets, Furniture Covers, Lace Curtains, etc., to Paul Richter's Store, No. 105 First Street, next to Odd Fellows' building, where they will close them out at bargains.

All parties indebted to them are requested to call at once to settle their accounts in order to save costs.

Stone has some pretty watches and lockets. "They are lovely," the ladies say.

The retention of the same customers year after year is the highest commendation a business firm can receive. It proves that those who know the house best, and who have the most frequently tested its merits, are its firmest friends. This is true of BECK & WALDMAN, where, in addition to hosts of new customers, the faces of old friends are constantly to be seen. The goods have been marked down as the firm wish to close out to make room for Spring Stock.

Rare bargains at B. L. Stone's jewelry store. Be sure to call this evening.

"WRESTLING JOE."

There is probably no man in the State of Oregon whose career is better known than that of the famous "Wrestling Joe." From the Salem Statesman we learn that a letter was received a few days ago by Green C. Davidson, from a Mr. Furlong. The writer was in San Francisco, and mentions having met old Joe Thomas upon the streets, and asking "Wrestling-Joe" how he was doing, that ancient remarked that he was doing remarkably well, making an average of $14 a day off the sympathies of the people. Begging is old Joe's strong suit, and he used to tell Davidson that he made it average ten dollars a day when he followed it and liked the business. He converses but little, and no solicitation is necessary, for the superannuated form, bent double over a long walking-pole, tells his story as no words could tell it. He was clothed in rags, Mr. Furlong says, which would add piteousness to his untold story. He dressed well enough when here, but old Joe is not above his business, and takes easily to the uniform of his profession. The San Franciscans probably have no idea that the man they have read of so often is honoring their city with his presence, and we hope they will keep up their liberal support. He claims to be an old man, and the doctors agree that he must be from 90 to 100 years old. He begged a small fortune in Mobile, and invested in lands and cattle near that city, and a friend in whom he has confidence is in charge of it and receives and cares for the spare cash which he accumulates. Joe begs from the love of it, and will loan his coin if good security is offered. He also begged at St. Louis. He has a law suit pending for property worth $1,000 in this city, and claims to have been robbed of $2,700, which he received for his interest in the Caruthers estate in Portland. Nobody feels confident that he really lost that money, and he has been paid $3,000 since then. Old Joe is a queer creature, take him all in all, and seems not to have grown so old as to forget that the world is still his oyster. Like Alexander of Macedon, who wept because he had no more worlds to conquer, "Wrestling Joe" is not willing to leave any city he has visited without levying tribute. He has sighed, if not wept, over the thought that there was a great deal of money to be made in San Francisco, and he has probably reached the hight of his ambition when there, collecting his dues.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

[From the P. C. Advocate.]

On Tuesday afternoon last, the assemblage at the Taylor Street Church, on the occasion of the meeting for the promotion of holiness, was much larger than we have noticed for several weeks.

Rev. I. Wilson, writing on business from Albany, adds the following interesting notes: The work of the Lord is prospering among us as well as could be expected, considering all things. We hope to be able to report to next Conference that all claims against our Church property have been met, and considerable increase in membership also.

Rev. T. F. Royal has been conducting a very successful protracted meeting at Hall street charge, in this city. Quite a number have already been received into the Church, and the expectation of the membership was never more buoyant of inspiring. Rev. Mr. Litchenthaler, of the United Brethren Church, has rendered assistance in the pulpit. The meetings are continued.

Rev. N. Doane reports the series of meetings held in the East Portland M. E. Church as very interesting and profitable. Ten persons have been united with the Church, and full as many conversions were reported. The converts' prayer meeting held on Saturday evenings is well attended and is productive of very good results. Public meetings are continued every night during the present week.

From Rev. J. F. Devore we learn that the quarterly meeting held at Olympia, on last Sabbath, was quite interesting. There were some accessions to the church, and the pastor, Rev. T. L. Woodward, has reason to be encouraged. The Sunday School, under the Superintendency of Hon. J. B. Allen, is in a prosperous condition. A fine library has just been received from New York. Miss Ella Woodward, daughter of the pastor, presides at the organ and contributes much to the interest of the school.

NEW SONG.

We were struck with the beauty of a new MS. song sung at an entertainment recently given at Oro Fino Theater, and would be gratified to have an opportunity of hearing it again. The words, by Mathias Barr, a barrister in London, England, are subjoined:

"AFAR ON THE ROLLING SEA."

The sailor sings in the shrouds aloft,
Afar on the rolling sea;
Oh! the day breaks not in a hundred years,
On a merrier wight than he.
The waves may dash, and the lightnings flash,
And the thunder loud may roar,
But a sunshine the sailor hath of his own
As he thinks of his love ashore.

He dreams of home in the bleak night watch,
Of a bright face far away,
And he breathes a prayer for the maiden fair
He will clasp to his heart one day.
Then, Heaven, look down on the heaving deep,
And rule in the stormy wind,
And true to the sailor while afloat
Be the lass that he leaves behind.
The waves may dash, etc.

The programme named E. G. Janson as the composer of the music, and we were somewhat surprised at the composer's name of so fine a piece of writing being unknown to the musical publishers of this coast. The opening is vigorous and extremely tuneful, being perfectly original and with a charming accompaniment. The andante, commencing the second verse, is faultlessly beautiful, and the change to the original theme is no less artistic than effective. We wish we had more frequent occasion to note the advent of so excellent a vocal production as "Afar on the Rolling Sea."

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Messrs. Scheuerer & Coyne have resumed business at the foot of Clay street. Their manufacture of boxes is highly spoken of.

Mr. P. Fleurot, the well-known caterer to the public palate, has leased the St. Charles Hotel, and will take possession on the 1st prox. Under the new management the house will receive a full share of patronage.

The firm of Joseph Kohn & Co. has been dissolved, Mr. Henry Kohn retiring. Mr. Jos. Kohn will continue the business at the old stand. He is too well-known in this community to receive an extended notice. Suffice to say he will be pleased to receive the patrons of the house and new customers, and will give full satisfaction.

That well-known house of Phillips, Taber & Co., San Francisco, has removed, as will be seen by card, among new advertisements. These gentlemen are thoroughly acquainted with the business, and have always given entire satisfaction to their numerous customers. We are pleased to have occasion to call attention to this house.

ESTABLISHED 1859.

E. cor. of Washington, where, with increased facilities, we shall endeavor to retain our old customers and obtain new ones by selling goods that are RELIABLE and full value, for the money asked. Portland, January 1, 1874.

It was purchased at B. L. Stone's—that beautiful set of jewelry—more on hand.

We received a very pleasant letter of thanks from our old friend Kendall, since his return home, for a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment which we gave him, and which he says has entirely cured him of the troublesome and dangerous cough he had when here.

On the death of one of England's most eminent physicians, all his effects were sold by auction, and among other things, was a sealed packet, marked "Advice to Physicians," which brought a great price. The purchaser on opening the packet, read as follows: "Keep the head cool, the bowels open and the feet warm." If physic is necessary, use Parsons' Purgative Pills—they are the most scientifically prepared pill that has appeared in the last hundred years.

How a Small Boy Made Five Hundred Dollars.—Two very fine diamonds, valued at $3,500, were recently lost by a gentleman in the employ of Smith & Hodges, diamond importers of this city. The moment the firm was informed of this loss they offered a reward of $500 for the return of the lost gems. On Dec. 30th a young lad entered the store of the diamond merchants and announced that he had found the goods in question, and immediately produced them. The boy receives the munificent sum of $3 per week in a down-town store, and lives in Duffield street, Brooklyn. The firm handed him a check for the amount offered in the advertisement, and the little fellow went home to make glad the hearts of his parents.—N. Y. Times, Jan. 4th.

A CURE FOR LIVER DISEASE.

RUSK, Texas, May 10th, 1873

Dr. R. V. Pierce:

Dear Sir—My wife last year at this time was confined to her bed with Chronic Liver Disease. I had one of the best doctors to see her, and he gave her up to die, when I came upon some of your medicine. I bought one bottle and commenced giving it. She then weighed 84 lbs.; now she weighs 140 lbs. and is robust and hearty. She has taken eight bottles in all, so you see I am an advocate for your Medicines. WM. MEAZEL.

The Foremost Tonic of the Age.

Taking into consideration the character of its vouchers, the history of its cures and its immense annual sales, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be fairly entitled the Foremost Tonic of the Age. It is not only a tonic but a constitutional and local alterative, and its tendency is to substitute healthy for diseased action throughout the system. If the stomach is feeble and torpid it produces a vitalizing impression upon its mucuous tissues. No sooner has the dyspeptic swallowed a dose of it than he knows by his sensations that his stomach has received an accession of vigor. It increases the desire for food and the ability to digest and assimilate it. If the liver is derelict, it improves the condition of the organ and imparts to it a new and healthful impulse. The bowels being obstructed, it promotes the flow of bile into the intestinal canal and thereby relieves them and re-establishes their natural action. Its effect upon the brain, the nerves and the kidneys is equally salutary. In short, it tones, alters and regulates the whole system.

A GREAT EDITOR'S POEM.

WATTERSON'S PANEGYRIC ON MURAT HALSTEAD'S SWEET STRAIN, "THERE WAS A YOUNG LADY APRIL"

From the Louisville Courier Journal

Since our issue of the 12th instant—but before proceeding further let us remark parenthetically that the life of true genius is eternal. The psychical essence of that genius, so to speak, which found its first altar in the heart of the blind old bard of Scio's rocky isle, and up to this time its last in the great Miami bard, shall live and breathe and burn, unconscious of decay, until the very planets themselves shall take off their extinguished crowns and melt into a night that shall know no sun, nor moon nor stars, nor break of dawn forever. Crown and scepter shall pass away, sword and shield and spear shall yield up to the corroding fangs of rust, lofty empires and hoary dynasties, seemingly twined with the garland of eternity, shall wither in the breath of ages and melt away like snow flakes upon the warm breast of June, but the spirit of the poet's genius, with her fair brow gemmed by the bright creations she hath wrought in the divine fire of the poet's fancy, shall live on, fadeless and deathless through all the vicissitudes of time and change and chance, and when at last there comes the dark deathday of all natural things, and the heavens roll up as a scroll and melt into nothingness amid the crash of their last thunder, she linked hand in hand with her triplet sisters, Love and Hope, shall stand upon the unsodded grave of the universe and mingle the strains of her immortal harp with the voices of the angels peopling all the new created air.

But suppose we pause. We did not intend at the outset to take this high lifted path, but were led astray by an earnest desire to do justice to a subject that has been too much neglected by the gifted few at whose hands it has a right to demand justice. Now let us retrace our steps, with the hope of stumbling upon our muttons, a fine flock of which we had in hand at the start.

Since our issue of the 19th instant—as we were about to observe—in which, as no one can possibly have forgotten, we incidentally alluded to the wonderfully beautiful lines formerly addressed "To The Young Girl Maria," by Mr Murat Halstead, now and for some years past a distinguished member of the press of a neighboring city, we have had applications for copies of that celebrated poem from every State in the Union, with large numbers also from transatlantic climes, to which fame has wafted,

"Like flower seeds by the far winds strewn, the sweet, undying echoes of the gifted Porkopolitan's harp. But we regret to say—and regret is but a feeble term to express our emotions in saying it—that the only copy now within our reach—for such as fortunately own the gem here refuse positively to suffer it to go out of their sight long enough for it to be transcribed—is the illuminated copy on parchment now in possession of the Public Library of Kentucky, and even that has been so constantly in the hands of rapt and eager lovers of true poetry that it is worn to a mere fragment. We gladly produce all that is left of it, which we do with the assurance to all who have applied for copies that the other forty three stanzas are, or were before they were unhappily lost, fully equal to these.

* * * *

To the shores of the Great Miami
Where the air is soft and balmy—
Where each breeze that comes to me
Whispers but of love and thee—
Come and hear me touch the lyre
Which thy charms alone inspire,
Peerless Peri, Sweet Maria!

* * * * * * *

With those eyes of tropic light—
Brighter than the stars are bright,
When at noon of night they rise
In the depths of Arctic skies—
In this breast thou st lit a fire
Which may never more expire
Chaste enchantress, sweet Maria!

By those lips to music bred
By that hair's exquisite red
By that brow of stainless snow,
Zoe mou sas agapo!
Crown me—let me reign up higher
Monarch of thy heart's empire,
Ermined Empress, sweet Maria

* * * * * * *

Come to these adoring arms,
Bringing all thy matchless charms—
Bringing all with kiss and vow—
Bringing all to me—Oh thou
Heiress of J—hn Sm—th Esq
Th'ne esteemed and talented sire,
Dimpled darling sweet Maria

June 15 1822

We would gladly give untold thousands for a perfect copy of this splendid poem—the finest in or out of the language—but we don't suppose now that we shall ever have a chance to do it. It is well nigh out of print, and the author sternly, and most unaccountably refuses to permit further editions. It is strange—it is more than strange—that the only poet whose genius has ever made Shakspeare ashamed of himself should so persistently hold the murderous dagger at the breast of his own fame. But, alas! it is so.

Bequest to a Convict.—The Poughkeepsie Eagle says that Eli Brown, alias Hoosier Bill, who in last June was convicted in General Sessions of grand larceny, and sentenced by Recorder Hackett to five years at hard labor in the State Prison at Sing Sing, has met with a stroke of good luck, which he unfortunately for himself cannot enjoy for several years to come. Brown had a rich old uncle in Kokomo, Indiana, who died a year or two ago, and who in his last will cut off Brown owing to the latter's misconduct, without a shilling. Brown contested the will on the ground of the testator's insanity, but the first court decided against him. The suit was appealed, and the Supreme Court of Indiana a few days ago ago awarded the whole estate, amounting to at least $30 000 in cash, to the man who is now expiating one of his numerous crimes in a convict's cell. The people of Bluffton, where Brown formerly lived, gave the former notice that in case he should be acquitted he should not return to that place under pain of being lynched. Brown's old gang in Indiana, to which at one time the notorious Reno brothers belonged, has been effectually broken up. The three accomplices of Brown who aided in murdering the cashier of the National Bank at Mount Sterling, in Illinois, have recently been hanged as horse thieves in Northwestern Missouri.

Ice Movement at Buffalo—Great Damage.—Buffalo, Jan 22.—The bad weather and high water caused the ice in Buffalo river to move about 11 A. M. to-day, piling it up in such force against the pontoon bridge over Ohio street as to carry the structure in its course, sweeping ten first class vessels down the stream and piling them in one mass against Michigan street bridge. The bowsprits of the vessels in their rapid course carried away the lower part of Hampton's elevator and inflicted serious damage to the City and Niagara elevators, completely demolishing the shed of the New York Central Railroad Co. The loss is estimated at $100 000. Michigan street bridge still holds the accumulated mass, but should it give way there is no calculating the damage to vessels and property below. The water is now overflowing the banks, running into the lake through Hamburg canal. The greatest excitement prevails.

The Boston Advertiser thinks that Fitz John Porter's request to have his case reopened is [illegible] saying. A soldier of General Porter's [illegible] and services ought not to be permitted to suffer under an inexorable condemnation [illegible] probable cause for believing the new evidence he is prepared to produce would affect the judgment of his honorable companions in arms to whom it would be submitted.

Exchange on San Francisco at par

Wheat in Liverpool by mail advices from San Francisco —Average California [illegible] club [illegible]

The [illegible] of [illegible] month [illegible] less [illegible] of [illegible] rates of [illegible] than [illegible] much [illegible] the [illegible] at the banks [illegible] prime [illegible] at [illegible] there is a [illegible] the [illegible] have [illegible] of their surplus wheat [illegible] have been able to pay the [illegible] have thus acquired the means to liquidate with the wholesale establishments and importers and to keep up their own [illegible]. The indications of improvement now visible in financial circles is without doubt largely attributable to the return to ordinary channels of trade of a portion of the large investments made last fall in wheat.

A [illegible] from Washington state that the treasury has received [illegible] of 1881 bonds for redemption [illegible] and that other large amounts are expected. The treasury operations for the last week at the New York office included disbursements of over $5 000 000 for interest and in the redemption of [illegible] bonds, and the receipt of $1 [illegible] 000 for customs. The shipments of specie for the same time were $[illegible] in silver bars. The total imports were $[illegible] of which $[illegible] were in merchandise and $[illegible] in dry goods.

General Trade.

The volume of trade in dry goods during the past week as well as for the month was restricted to a small compass, as orders from the interior though fair in numbers are as usual at this season mostly for piece goods to fill out broken stocks which can not wait for the spring trade. Prices as a usual thing are well sustained, except for such as have passed or are passing out of season, but these have been in a great measure worked off. Woolen and mixed goods exhibit more favorable symptoms for those carrying stocks. The market in imported dry goods is difficult to anticipate with certainty. Our imports during the past five months have been comparatively small, and as foreign manufactures have not ceased we may reasonable suppose they are expecting us to take our share of their fabrics and that our imports for a few months to come will increase quite largely. If this be true then it is quite probable that no important advance in this line of goods will be maintained. There is at present only a small trade in millinery, the movement is in dry goods being almost entirely confined to making up assortments. The movement in clothing though not large, was encouraging to dealers. In boots and shoes there was a fair trade on interior account. Low grade goods are at a slight discount, yet as a rule the market is steady. The demand for hardware outside of nails and shelf goods is very meager and offers are favorable to buyers. A quiet feeling also exists in drugs, paints and oils as is usual at this season.

There is less apathy in staple groceries than in most other branches of trade, but still the movement is limited comparatively with a period earlier or later in the season. Current values have lost none of their firmness—coffees more especially being firm and the tendency strongly upward.

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—As we have but two vessels now in port and none others near at hand, the market in this cereal is unusually quiet. The amount in the hands of warehouse men, speculators and middlemen embraces a good portion of the remaining surplus, though exporters are sufficiently full handed to load all their vessels. The rumors concerning the market to-day are somewhat conflicting, but as transactions are so limited, we can see no good reason to change our quotations of $1 80@1 90 ₰ cental, which exporters seem indifferent about giving and holders less anxious to accept. The large quantities of Flour in the market have led the shippers to use it in finishing cargoes rather than Wheat. The future of the market seems rather unfavorable. Our San Francisco exchanges say the late Liverpool quotations of 1[illegible] ₰ cental for Club was a mistake of the telegraph and was not corroborated by private advices, and they therefore reduce the rate to the figures given above.

FLOUR—The quantity of this commodity now in market and being received is exceedingly large. Shipments also are lively and to ports to the northward are perceptibly increasing. The exports in that direction will likely be considerable for the next few months. The local trade in the mean time, continues active and prices for jobbing lots have not materially declined. Cargoes however are generally secured on terms more favorable than smaller quantities. Millers, agents and jobbers here sell at $6 25@6 50 for standard extra, $5 75@6 for choice outside and country brands, $5 for superfine and $4@4 50 for fine.

OATS—The dull market and increased supply are unfavorable to holders, especially as the advent of spring will soon lessen the demand in San Francisco, and as it is clear that the surplus in the interior of our own State is still very large. Shipments to San Francisco do not appear to be very remunerative according to reports, but still continue in limited amount. Our home quotations are 4[illegible] ₰ bushel for good lots including sacks.

BARLEY—The local demand consumes the most offering, and beyond that there is no active call. Total exports during the season have been meagre, and at ruling freight charges are out of the question. We quote at $1 40 ₰ 100 lbs.

FEED—No product is in fuller supply than stock feed of all kinds, and leading dealers intimate that it is a matter of great difficulty to place large lots even at the low rates that prevail. The jobbing houses here are filled with very large stocks, which they are strenuously trying to work off, with apparently but limited success. The range of prices is about $14 per ton for bran, $20@22 50 for shorts, $21@24 for chops, middlings, etc. Oilcake meal is held at $30.

HAY—Like feed of other kinds the call for hay is dull and the supply excessive. Quotations for best baled timothy delivered are furnished at $14 per ton, loose $12 50@13, while wild is plenty and dull at $8 per ton.

POTATOES—With somewhat diminished receipts prices are firm at 40@50c per bushel for No 1 varieties, but large lots must submit to a reduction of 5c or 10c a bushel on these rates.

ONIONS—The demand is very limited and parties who engaged lots early in the season find them dull sale if not unprofitable at current rates now. There are but few buyers in this market, and offers are not beyond $1 75 per 100 pounds as a rule, though occasional lots are placed at $2.

APPLES—A few shipments have been made during the past week of choice varieties for which 60@75c per box sorted and neatly packed was paid, but ordinary lots are much lower, loose lots selling from wagons at 40@50c.

DRIED FRUIT—Some slight improvement in the demand for dried apples was noticed during the week, but at present there is no indication of any permanent advance in prices. Large lots are offering, but shippers seem little inclined to go beyond 4½@5 cents for sacked and 5@5½ in kegs.

BACON—The market is without important change since our last review, prices remaining quite steady at 10@11 cents ₰ lb for sides, 9@10 for shoulders and 1[illegible] for hams of good quality country cured. The demand is quite up to the average.

LARD—We quote fresh receipts in good demand at 12 cents ₰ pound in kegs and 13c in tins. The receipts of the week have been light but seem to be increasing.

BUTTER—The receipts are again outgrowing the demand, and large accumulations in the market of ordinary lots are noticed. Prices are dull at 15@20 cents ₰ lb for common lots, miscellaneous packed 2[illegible]@25c for brine, 25@30 for best roll and 30@35c for fancy print.

CHEESE—There is a steady local demand for this article from our State dairies, which is furnished to dealers at 16@17 cents ₰ pound.

EGGS—We are compelled to mark down our last quotations [illegible] cts per doz, as ruling offers are now not above [illegible] cents. The receipts in the past few days [illegible] in excess of the local demand and a dull market in San Francisco [illegible] for the decline.

POULTRY—There is but a scanty supply in the market and prices have advanced. Choice lots of chickens are worth $4 50 per doz, common $3 [illegible] $4, ducks $[illegible] [illegible] for wild, turkeys $1 [illegible] a piece, geese $[illegible] per doz.

DRESSED HOGS—A decline in receipts [illegible] and with a fair demand our last quotations are firmly sustained.

BEEF CATTLE—Choice lots are in steady demand and [illegible] while [illegible] for drop, cutting and [illegible] dull sale. We give the range of the market at 4[illegible] per [illegible] and on foot.

MUTTON SHEEP—Our last quotation of $2 [illegible] per head are good for to-day. Fewer arrivals are noticed as the winter draws toward a close.

TALLOW—Prices are given as quite firm at [illegible] per pound for clear.

HIDES—The scarcity of shipping and high freights have somewhat checked the demand and the market is duller with no very important change in offers, which are [illegible] per [illegible] and for dry salted [illegible] for green salted [illegible] qualities.

WOOL—There is no activity in the market worthy of mention. The current rates [illegible] lots are firm at [illegible].

MEDICAL.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Married Men,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DR. GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells Fargo & Co a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union. All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Postoffice Box 1957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the DAILY OREGONIAN. jy6d4p
